Re: ECF Nos. 172, 180

On April 21, 2025, Defendant Yan Yao Jiang filed a notice of non-opposition to his previously filed motion for judgment, (ECF No. 165). (ECF No. 180.) Defendant argues that because Plaintiff failed to respond, the court should grant the motion for judgment. (Id.) Defendant notes that although Plaintiff filed a motion for extension of time to respond by April 14, 2025, (ECF No. 172), she did not file any response by that date. Given Plaintiff's status as a pro se litigant, the court will grant her request for an extension of time to file a response to Defendant's motion for judgment. The response is now due on or before Friday, April 25, 2025. If Plaintiff does not respond, the court will consider Defendant's motion to be unopposed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: April 22, 2025
